
Holds

There are several types of holds, which are restrictions that may block registration. Students are notified through myZou if they have a hold. They should go to the location indicated in myZou to resolve the hold.

In some situations, it is important that records or holds preventing certain actions be maintained in student records across the four campuses in the University of Missouri System. For instance, if a student is sanctioned with University Dismissal, University Suspension, University Expulsion or other sanctions / agreements that extend beyond a given campus, a mechanism to enforce such agreements or sanctions is applied.
