No student shall work more than 20 hours per week in a semester where she or he is enrolled as a full-time first-year law student (hereinafter the “1L 20-hour rule”).

The 1L 20-hour rule does not apply to the period between semesters, or the summer (unless the student is enrolled in summer school full-time) or to any break during the semester (e.g., spring or Thanksgiving breaks).