

MA in Communication

Degree Requirements

The MA in Communication requires 30 hours of course work with a B average (minimum) GPA. Students who do not have an undergraduate degree in Communication may be required to take course work beyond the minimum required 30 hours to remedy any deficiencies.

All courses must be taken at the 7000 level or higher. At least 15 hours of courses must be taken at the 8000 level. At least 24 hours of graduate classes (7000 and above) must be completed in the department. COMMUN 8110 Introduction to Graduate Study in Communication, must be completed as part of the coursework along with a research methods course. No more than 12 hours combined may be taken in research, problems, or directed readings courses (i.e., 4960, 8085, 9050).

At least 24 hours of course work must be completed at the University of Missouri-Columbia campus. Only six hours of graduate credit may be transferred from another university in the University of Missouri system.

No more than 9 hours of course work or independent study in television production or scriptwriting will be accepted for the MA degree. Students may opt to take more production hours but they may not be included in the candidate's plan of study.

The MA must be completed in 8 years.

Thesis and Non-Thesis Options

The master of arts degree may be completed under either a thesis option, approved by an advisory committee, or a non-thesis option (with a comprehensive examination and project).

You must write either a master's thesis or complete a substantial research or creative project with exams in lieu of a thesis. The thesis option requires an oral defense of the thesis before a committee of three faculty members. This is in lieu of written comprehensive exams. Students who opt for the project option must submit an approved research project or creative project to their advisor prior to graduation and must successfully pass a six-hour written comprehensive examination written for a three-member faculty advisory committee. A student may earn up to six hours of academic credit for either the thesis or the independent project.

Both plans require a minimum of 30 hours of graduate credit, including at least 15 hours of course work at the 8000/9000 level. MA candidates may take up to 6 hours of credit for their MA project for the non-thesis option. MA candidates take a minimum of 6 hours in 9090 Thesis Research for the thesis option.

Admission Criteria

Fall deadline: January 15

International applicants must meet the minimum English language requirements set by the University of Missouri Graduate School.

Students who do not have an undergraduate degree in communication may be required to take course work beyond the required 30 hours to provide necessary background.

Required Application Materials

To the Graduate School:

- All required Graduate Admissions documents

To the Communication Program (https://communication.missouri.edu/?q=grad/admissions)

- Departmental application
- 3 letters of recommendation
- Example of scholarly writing (no more than 25 pages)
- Transcripts
- Statement of purpose (no more than 1000 words) explaining the student's intended field of study, professional goals and other reasons for wishing to enter the graduate program. See full prompt in application portal.
- Résumé

Financial Aid from the Program

Some programs require an extra form or statement from those who wish to be considered for internal assistantships, fellowships or other funding packages. Check the program website or ask the program contact for details.

Admission Contact Information

Martha Crump (crumpm@missouri.edu)
108 Switzler Hall; Columbia, MO 65211
(573) 882-4432