BA in International Studies with Emphasis in East Asian Studies

Degree Program Description
The Bachelor of Arts in International Studies is an individually designed major with a strong multicultural and global focus. The emphasis in East Asian Studies focuses on creating an understanding and awareness of the culture, history, politics, geography and languages of the East Asian countries, with an emphasis in China, Japan or Korea. The program is multidisciplinary, encompassing course work from the departments of Geography, History, Anthropology, Religious Studies, Political Science and Philosophy, as well as in Chinese, Japanese and Korean. The program prepares students for graduate study and careers in academia, teaching, law, business, public policy, humanitarian aid, non-profit organizations, government, and diplomacy. There is an option available for students who wish to obtain Chinese teaching certification.

Major Program Requirements
Refer to the program requirements for the BA in International Studies (http://catalog.missouri.edu/collegeofartsandscience/internationalstudies/ba-international-studies/). In addition, for the emphasis in East Asian Studies, students must complete 12 hours of credit:

- 9 credits from a single department or area
- 3 credits in a capstone experience.

Students are encouraged to begin study of their foreign language no later than the sophomore year. Students should consult with the International Center about appropriate locations for their study abroad experience. In addition, students must complete all College of Arts and Science, and University graduation requirements (http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicdegreerequirements/universityrequirements/), including University general education (http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicdegreerequirements/generaleducationrequirements/).
