

Certificate in Sales and Customer Development

Through the required coursework and internship of the certificate, students acquire vital skills and knowledge of current best practices in the sales profession and sales management. Students who finish the 13-15 credit-hour curriculum earn the Certificate in Sales and Customer Development upon completion of their bachelor's degree, offering employers tangible evidence of a strong background in sales. For additional information on the Certificate in Sales & Customer Development, please refer to our website (<https://business.missouri.edu/programs-admissions/undergraduate/minors-and-certificates/sales-and-customer-development/>).
