Parks, Recreation and Sport is among the oldest nationally accredited programs in the United States. Emphasis areas include: Recreation Administration, Natural Resource Recreation Management, Tourism Development, and Sport Management. The program integrates classroom learning with applied research and internship experiences and is a leader in technology infusion.

All students in Parks, Recreation and Sport are required to complete a capstone internship, taken during the last year of study after all courses are completed. The semester-long internship, worth 12 credit hours, is with an on or off-campus agency or organization chosen by the student and approved by the instructor. Regional, national and international internship placements are possible. Students may receive direct financial assistance from the agency or organization during the internship. Internships outside the state of Missouri require a 2.5 GPA.

The program offers BS in Parks, Recreation and Sport and MS in Natural Resources.

Undergraduate

- BS in Parks, Recreation and Sport (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduate/collegeofagriculturefoodandnaturalresources/parksrecreationandsport/bs-parks-recreation-sport)
  - with emphasis in Sport Management (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduate/collegeofagriculturefoodandnaturalresources/parksrecreationandsport/bs-parks-recreation-sport-emphasis-sport-management)
  - with emphasis in Tourism Development (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduate/collegeofagriculturefoodandnaturalresources/parksrecreationandsport/bs-parks-recreation-sport-emphasis-tourism-development)

Students pursuing a degree in Parks, Recreation and Sport choose between four emphasis areas. The Natural Resources Recreation Management emphasis focuses on the combination of natural and social sciences, and the management of people and natural resources in parks, forests, refuges, and reservoirs. The Recreation Administration emphasis prepares students to work within a wide variety of public and private entities to oversee management, events, operations, and finance. The Sport Management emphasis is designed to provide students with the professional preparation, managerial skills, and leadership training required for an array of careers in the sport industry. The Tourism Development emphasis focuses on planning and management associated with tourism venues, enterprises and events.

About Parks, Recreation & Tourism

Since virtually everyone participates in some form of leisure, the primary benefit of Parks, Recreation and Tourism (PRT) is to address quality of life issues. The unique interaction of people, places, and activities establish our profession as one of the world’s largest industries. Students learn how to manage service delivery systems by combining theory with practice.
