Note: The Truman School is temporarily not accepting applications for the certificate program in Organization Consulting & Change.

The graduate certificate in organizational consulting and change is a multidisciplinary and multi-sector approach to the theory and practice of transforming organizations and communities in a technologically advanced and global economy. Students will have an opportunity to develop knowledge and competencies appropriate to the advanced study and diagnosis of evolving and emerging organizations and communities in the public, private, and nonprofit arena. They will find a curriculum supportive of careers in academics, management, and consulting.

Eligibility

Students do not need to be enrolled in a graduate degree program at MU to participate in the program.

Plan of Study

Students must complete 12 credit hours to receive the certificate.
