BA in International Studies with Emphasis in East Asian Studies

Degree Program Description
The Bachelor of Arts in International Studies is an individually designed major with a strong multicultural and global focus. The emphasis in East Asian Studies focuses on creating an understanding and awareness of the culture, history, politics, geography and languages of the East Asian countries, with an emphasis in China, Japan or Korea. The program is multidisciplinary, encompassing course work from the departments of Geography, History, Anthropology, Religious Studies, Political Science and Philosophy, as well as in Chinese, Japanese and Korean. Students are encouraged to begin study of their foreign language no later than the sophomore year. The program prepares students for graduate study and careers in academia, teaching, law, business, public policy, humanitarian aid, non-profit organizations, government, and diplomacy.

Major Program Requirements
Refer to the program requirements for the BA in International Studies (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduategraduate/collegeofartsandscience/internationalstudies/ba-international-studies). East Asian Studies is one of the emphasis areas in the International Studies major. The program is multidisciplinary, encompassing course work from the departments of Geography, History, Anthropology, Religious Studies, Political Science and Philosophy, as well as in Chinese, Japanese and Korean. The program focuses on creating an understanding and awareness of the culture, history, politics, geography and languages of the East Asian countries, with an emphasis in China, Japan or Korea. Students are encouraged to begin study of their foreign language no later than the sophomore year. Students should consult with the International Center about appropriate locations for their study abroad experience.

Semester Plan
Refer to the program requirements for the BA in International Studies (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduategraduate/collegeofartsandscience/internationalstudies/ba-international-studies).