Graduate Minor in Linguistics

Completion Requirements for the Graduate Minor in Linguistics

A graduate minor field in linguistics is available to graduate students. It is comprised of 12 hours, two courses of which are required and two are to be selected from a list of upper level linguistics classes:

Required:
- LINGST 7630: Phonology (3 hours)
- LINGST 7640: Syntax (3 hours)

Sample list from which two additional courses will be selected (appropriate substitutes may be accepted at the discretion of the chair):

- LINGST 7420: Historical Linguistics
- LINGST 7600: Structure of American English
- LINGST 7610: History of the English Language
- LINGST 7620: Regional and Social Dialects of American English
- LINGST 7870: Field Methods in Linguistics

Total Credits: 12-13