EdD in Learning, Teaching and Curriculum with Emphasis in General

Our department is not currently admitting students to this emphasis area. We invite you to explore the other graduate degree options within Learning, Teaching and Curriculum (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduategraduate/collegeofeducation/learningteachingandcurriculum/#graduatetext).

Overview

This program prepares students to:

- Understand education in terms of research, curriculum, policy, teacher development and student learning;
- Develop, carry out, and report independent research related to education;
- Become outstanding teachers/advisors of college students;
- Understand the role of service in the university setting and begin those memberships in organizations that can lead to a service agenda.

These goals are achieved through a combination of coursework, internships, and authentic experiences with research, development, and teacher education.

Degree Requirements

The Ed.D in LTC is a 72-hour program above the bachelor's. Coursework includes core education courses, research courses, electives and internships.