Degree Requirements
The PhD in Learning, Teaching and Curriculum is offered with emphasis in Art Education, Early Childhood Education, Mathematics Education, Reading Education, Science Education and Social Studies Education. Students must choose an emphasis area. To receive a PhD degree, you must complete a minimum of 72 hours of coursework beyond a bachelor’s degree. A minimum of 15 credit hours must be at the 8000-level or above, exclusive of research, problems, and independent study experiences. Programs of study are individually planned with a faculty committee. More details are available on the emphasis area pages.

Application Deadlines
Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications as early in the process as possible. Applications can take 6-8 weeks to complete through the procedures and processing system. Every reasonable effort will be made to process the application for the semester requested.

Admission Requirements
• Completion of an appropriate preliminary degree with a GPA of 3.0 or better
• Evidence of at least 2 years of successful experience in an appropriate field
• Minimum TOEFL scores for most areas:
