The requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education are specified in three areas: University general education (http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicdegreerequirements/generaleducationrequirements), professional education and a teaching major. All students preparing to be teachers in early childhood, elementary, special education, middle or secondary schools, regardless of the major field, are required to complete the University general education (http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicdegreerequirements/generaleducationrequirements) program. Students transferring from other institutions are required to fulfill the equivalencies of these courses.

Graduate

The Secondary Education Program at the University of Missouri includes degree programs that focus on preparing graduates to teach in grades 9-12. The College of Education does not currently offer a graduate degree specifically to Secondary Education. However, we do offer Masters (M.Ed.) and doctorates (Ph.D) in the following areas.

- Math
- English/Language Arts
- Science
- Social Studies
- Art
- Music

We also offer a graduate degree in “Reading/Literacy Education” at the M.Ed., Ed.S., Ed.D, and Ph.D. levels.

You can find out more about the programs by going to http://education.missouri.edu/academics/graduate_studies/index.php.

Courses

Courses on Secondary Education can be found within the subject area of Learning, Teaching and Curriculum (LTC).
