EdSp in Special Education

Our department is no longer admitting students to the EdSp program. We invite you to explore the other graduate degree options within the Special Education Department (http://catalog.missouri.edu/undergraduate/graduate/collegeofeducation/specialeducation/#graduatetext).

Degree Requirements

The program of study outlined for the degree must contain a minimum of 30 semester hours of approved graduate credit beyond the master's degree.

Core requirements:

- ESC_PS 7170 Introduction to Applied Statistics 3
- ESC_PS 8020 Overview of Research Methods 3

24 hours as planned between you and your advisor based on the following outline:

18 hours of Special Education specific courses including:

- SPC_ED 8353 Advanced Studies: Single Subject Design
- SPC_ED 8355 Grant Writing
- SPC_ED 8365 Research Design in Special Education
- SPC_ED 8370 Foundations I: History, Law and Policy in Special Education
- SPC_ED 8375 Foundations II: Pedagogical Theories in Special Education

Minimum of 1 advanced Special Education studies course

6 hours of College of Education courses or additional Special Education courses