Graduate Certificate in Geriatric Care Management

The Geriatric Care Management certificate is a web-based, four course certificate designed for those who provide independent case management services to elder Americans or who wish to do so in the future. The certificate provides an educational credential in addition to preparing students to sit for certification examinations given by national credentialing organizations.

For more information about certificate, contact:
Dr. Cynthia S. Reeser
Department of Human Development and Family Studies
College of Human Environmental Sciences
314 Gentry Hall
Columbia, MO 65211
573-882-5617
reeserc@missouri.edu

Federal Gainful Employment disclosure information for this Graduate Certificate is available at http://gradschool.missouri.edu/academics/programs/geriatric-care-management-graduate-certificate/geriatric-care-ge/Gedt.html