

Graduate Certificate in Early Childhood & Family Policy

The graduate certificate in Early Childhood and Family Policy seeks to attract individuals who are committed to working on behalf of diverse children and families in pedagogical and nonpedagogical contexts to evaluate, inform, create, and advocate for quality policy. Early childhood and family policy will advance the knowledge, skills, and competencies of those working on behalf of children and families, but perhaps not directly with them.

Requirements

History, Child Development & Equity (H_D_FS Course in Development)		3
Examining Practices, Policies, and Key Issues (H_D_FS Course in Development)		3
PUB_AF 7175	Early Childhood Policy	3
PUB_AF 7176	Policy, Leadership, and Policy Advocacy (In Development)	3