Minor in Leadership and Public Service

The Minor in Leadership and Public Service combines an academic component of courses in leadership, public policy, ethics, and social issues with a strong focus on service-learning, community service, and public service internships.

Consider this minor if you are interested in:

- A self-crafted minor that provides a framework for your own leadership goals
- Developing the skills needed to succeed in both the non-profit sector and government
- Becoming an impactful leader on a local, national, and international level
- Looking for an opportunity to set yourself apart from the applicant pool for both graduate and professional school

Requirements

A minimum of 15 credit hours are required to complete the Minor.
