

Minor in Photography

The Minor in Photography privileges the development of skills and production of a body of work guided by personal and critical inquiry. The associated coursework engages photography in direct relationship to its expanding uses and definition; to photography's past and present position within the the arts; and within the diverse landscape of imaging practices and visual culture.

Requirements

The School of Visual Studies Minor in Photography requires a total of 15 credits in studio photography courses.

Required Courses		12
ART_VS 2600	Digital Photography	3
ART_VS 3600	Black and White Photography	3
ART_VS 4600	Advanced Photography (taken twice)	6
Electives (choose one course)		3
ARH_VS 2740	Photography in History and Theory	3
ART_VS 3610	Studio Photography	3
ART_VS 4685	Problems in Photography	3