

BM in Music with Emphasis in Performance

Degree Program Description

The Bachelor of Music (BM) degree with an emphasis in Performance focuses on studio instruction, pedagogy, and literature for instrumental or vocal performance. Students select brass, percussion, piano, strings, voice, or woodwinds as a primary instrument. It is designed for the student who intends to pursue a career as a performer, teacher, or work in a music-related field, as well as the student who plans to enter graduate school to pursue further study in one of these areas. Students must audition to be admitted into the emphasis area.

Major Program Requirements

The program requires 120 credit hours, including courses in music theory, music history, studio instruction, and ensembles.

In addition to the list of required courses below for the emphasis in Performance for each track (brass, percussion, piano, string, vocal, or woodwind), students must complete the bachelor of music (http:// catalog.missouri.edu/collegeofartsandscience/music/bm-music/), University (http://catalog.missouri.edu/academicdegreerequirements/ universityrequirements/), general education (http://catalog.missouri.edu/ academicdegreerequirements/generaleducationrequirements/), and College of Arts and Science (http://catalog.missouri.edu/ collegeofartsandscience/#undergraduatetext) requirements, students must also meet the following major program requirements. All major requirements in the College of Arts and Science must be completed with grades of C- or higher unless otherwise indicated.
