

Graduate Certificate in Special Education Administration

The Special Education Administration Certificate is a graduate level program designed to provide candidates with advanced preparation in special education administration methodology and practices. Candidates become equipped with the knowledge and skills necessary to work with administration, schools, and the community, as well as children and youth in the field of special education.

Requirements

Students complete a set 12 hours (4 course) program of study. Courses can be taken in any order. Students eligible for the certificate program must hold a bachelor's degree in the field of education, special education, or related services. Eligible students may or may not be concurrently enrolled in a graduate program.
