

Minor in Social Justice for Educational Leaders

The social justice for educational leaders' minor is a 15-credit hour program that is an ideal add-on for future educators or practitioners who are interested in diversity, equity, and inclusion and who want to develop their capacity to drive social justice within their personal and professional contexts.

Requirements

Students will take three core courses and will select two elective options from the five below to fulfill the 15-hour requirement for the minor. A grade of C- or higher is required for the course to count towards the minor.
