

Listening and Speaking (Intensive English Program) (IEPL)

---

IEPL _0001: Listening and Speaking I

Students will develop the listening and speaking skills required to comprehend and talk about basic information and everyday situations. Not open to native speakers of English. No college credit.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: must be admitted to the IEP program and placed into the course by the IEP; consent of department required

---

IEPL _0002: Listening and Speaking II

Students will develop the listening and speaking skills required to comprehend and talk about simple familiar topics. Not open to native speakers of English. No college credit.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: must be admitted to the IEP program and placed into the course by the IEP; consent of department required

---

IEPL _0030: Listening and Speaking for Academic Purposes III

Students will develop the listening and speaking skills required to comprehend and discuss adapted academic topics. Not open to native speakers of English. No college credit.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: must be admitted to the IEP program and placed into the course by the IEP; consent of department required

---

IEPL _0040: Listening and Speaking for Academic Purposes IV

Students will develop the listening and speaking skills required to comprehend and discuss academic topics and adapted university lectures. Not open to native speakers of English. No college credit.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: must be admitted to the IEP program and placed into the course by the IEP; consent of department required

---

IEPL _0050: Listening and Speaking for Academic Purposes V

Students will develop the listening and speaking skills required to comprehend and discuss university lectures and academic interactions. Not open to native speakers of English. No college credit.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisites: must be admitted to the IEP program and placed into the course by the IEP; consent of department required

---