Health Administration

Sue A. Boren, Program Director and Professor

Contact Information

Health Administration

If interested in the program contact, Lhakap Lama, ldpdp@missouri.edu
If interested in a course contact, Carla Jerome Beckmann, jeromebeckmannnc@missouri.edu

Department of Health Sciences

Graduate level academic programs at MU in the area of Health Administration are offered through the Department Health Sciences in the College of Health Sciences.

The Department Health Sciences offers the following degrees and graduate certificate programs:

- Master of Health Administration (executive and residential cohort)
- Graduate Certificate in Informatics for Public Health (100% online)

Residential Master of Health Administration students may also pursue a dual MBA, MS in Industrial Engineering, MPA, or JD degree. Some students choose to complete an additional Master's degree, such as the MPH, concurrently with the MHA degree.

Faculty

Professor S. Boren
Associate Professor P Alafaireet, B. Hensel*, J. Kapp, N. Khatri, I. Zachary
Assistant Professor M. Kim, D. Moxley *
Adjunct Instructor R. Sommer*, J. Tucker*
Professors Emeriti . Hicks, D. Wakefield

* Graduate Faculty Member - membership is required to teach graduate-level courses, chair master's thesis committees, and serve on doctoral examination and dissertation committees.
 Doctoral Faculty Member - membership is required to chair doctoral examination or dissertation committees. Graduate faculty membership is a prerequisite for Doctoral faculty membership.

Undergraduate

While MU does not offer undergraduate degrees specifically in health administration, the University does offer baccalaureate opportunities in a number of related areas in the other Schools and Colleges that make up the University. The catalog provides a complete list of these degree options (http://catalog.missouri.edu/degreesanddegreeprograms/).

Graduate

- MHA in Health Administration (http://catalog.missouri.edu/schoolofmedicine/healthadministration/mha-health-administration/)

About the Master of Health Administration

The graduate program in Health Administration prepares professionals to meet critical and complex challenges in leadership and improvement in organizations and systems throughout the health industry. The program provides recognized national and global leadership in health management education.